

INTSIKA - SOUTH AFRICA

Special Project 2024/2025

Mothers Union Sydney
Special Project

in Partnership with Anglican Aid

Intsika is addressing poverty through education and mentorship of children.

It runs a homework club, school readiness program for preschoolers, ministry training for young Christian leaders, and a Friday afternoon kids outreach club with around 140 children attending regularly.

It's programs give practical help to families through home visits, food parcels, and clothing and also encourages parents and carers in their faith through a Bible study group.

Intsika is based in Gqeberha (formerly Port Elizabeth), South Africa.
