

Conference Speakers

James and Simone Boswell

James and Simone are recognised authors and conference speakers, particularly on the topics of parenting and cyber parenting. Together they have a wealth of professional, ministry and parenting experience.

James has worked as an IT specialist for over 30 years, during which time he has been involved in exploring the role of technology in relation to youth mental health. Simone has worked as a high school music teacher and served in a range of ministries particularly with young mums and children. James and Simone have six children.

Vanessa Boland

Vanessa is a psychologist in the New England with over 10 years of counselling experience in private practice, currently specialising in treating depression and anxiety. She will speak about the increasing prevalence of anxiety in both children and teenagers and how we can try and manage it from both a biblical and psychological perspective. Married to Ben, they have recently welcomed their first child.

Sharon Kirk

Sharon is the NSW State President of MU, and has been supporting her husband in Anglican ministry in the Armidale Diocese for over 25 years. She is a graduate in theology, and currently tutors New Testament Greek online for Ridley Melbourne.

With 5 grown sons, Sharon now enjoys ministry to women and opportunities to learn and teach God's word.
